

The East Falls Historical Society

Presents a Walking Tour

ARCHITECTURAL SURPRISES OF UPPER EAST FALLS (Queen Lane Manor)

Created and led by historian and author Steven Peitzman, and tour guide and lecturer Ken Hinde

Saturday, April 18, 2015 at 10 a.m.
(Rescheduled from October, 2014)

$15 Admission ($10 EFHS Members)

Meet these creatures on the tour!

Within a few-block area in the upper part of East Falls, once known as Queen Lane Manor, can be found excellent examples of a range of architectural styles: grandiose Beaux Arts, clean and crisp International, Art Deco, Georgian Revival, Jacobean, and more. We will also discuss some of the history of the area, from General George Washington to oil baron William G. Warden.

Please meet at 10:00 sharp at the southeast corner of Queen Lane and Fox Streets, at the Revolutionary War Monument. The tour goes on unless the morning brings heavy rain. For more information contact Steven Peitzman at peitzmansj@gmail.com.
